Floral Indulgence

At the Anumba Spa at The Racha in Thailand, the Thai Flower Ritual is gentle and calming, and its effectiveness in soothing tired minds and muscles is refreshingly simple. It opens with a relaxing steam, followed by a Thai herbal scrub and floral bath and wraps up with a sublime aromatherapy body massage and Anumba Visible Brilliance Facial. An Early Riser Special discount is available when the treatment is scheduled for between 9am – 12pm. www.theracha.com

Lit From Within

Studies suggest the first thing people notice in others is their face, which would explain why, while The Sloane Clinic doesn't offer Endermologie as a body-sculpting option, they do knock standard facials out the park with their new pampering Illumi Facial. For a luxe beauty fix with complexion-enhancing benefits and skin-lifting effects that leaves you with an enviably radiant face, this anti-ageing treatment features Illumi facial's signature infra-red light, which penetrates skin deeply to stimulate collagen production, restoring elasticity, tone and suppleness. A facial using ultrasound waves to exfoliate dead skin cells and an infusion of skin replenishing vitamins and youth-boosting enzymes wraps up the facial. Fusion isn't just restricted to food. To expand its treatment menu for 2013, Devarana Spa in Bangkok created the Shilomi Massage, a seamless blend of the ancient Shiatsu Massage from Japan and the soothing Lomi Lomi Massage from Hawaii. Reenergise whilst easing tension from muscles, joints, tendons and major organs.
